

Information for Clients

Set out below is the information required by the Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers of the New Zealand Law Society ("Law Society Rules").

Fees

Subject to any arrangements set out in any engagement letter, the factors we will take into account in determining the fees we will charge and when payment of fees is to be made are set out in our Standard Terms of Engagement.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

We hold professional indemnity insurance that exceeds the minimum standards specified by the Law Society. We will provide you with particulars of the minimum standards upon request.

Lawyers' Fidelity Fund

The Law Society maintains the Lawyers' Fidelity Fund for the purpose of providing clients of lawyers with protection against pecuniary loss arising from theft by lawyers. The maximum amount payable by the Fidelity Fund by way of compensation to an individual claimant is limited to $100,000. Except in certain circumstances specified in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006, the Fidelity Fund does not cover a client for any loss relating to money that a lawyer is instructed to invest on behalf of the client.

Complaints

We maintain a procedure for handling any complaints by clients, designed to ensure that a complaint is dealt with promptly and fairly.

If you have a complaint about our services or charges, you may refer your complaint to the partner in our firm who has overall responsibility for your work.

If you do not wish to refer your complaint to that partner, or you are not satisfied with that partner's response to your complaint, you may refer your complaint to the team leader of the responsible partner, through our Managing Partner. Our Managing Partner may be contacted as follows:

- by letter at Private Bag 92093, Auckland 1142;
- by email at Nick.Gillies@heskethhenry.co.nz;
- by telephone on (09) 375 8700.

The Law Society also maintains a complaints service and you are able to make a complaint to that service. Please phone 0800 261 801 and you will be connected to the nearest Complaints Service Office, which can provide information and advice about making a complaint.

Persons Responsible for Your Work

The names and status of the person or persons who will carry out or be responsible for the services we provide for you are set out in our letter of engagement.

Client Care and Service

As required by the Law Society Rules, in providing our services we will:

- act competently, in a timely way, and in accordance with instructions received and arrangements made;
- protect and promote your interests and act for you free from compromising influences or loyalties;
- discuss with you your objectives and how they should best be achieved;
- provide you with information about the work to be done, who will do it and the way the services will be provided;

Standard Terms of Engagement

These Standard Terms of Engagement ("Terms") apply in respect of all work carried out by us for you, except to the extent that we otherwise agree with you in writing. If you have any questions, please contact the partner responsible for your work.

1. Scope of Services
 - 1.1 The legal services which we are to provide for you as your lawyers are outlined in our engagement letter. We are only qualified to advise on New Zealand law. If we assist you on matters governed by foreign law, we do so on the basis that we do not accept any responsibility in relation to your position under that foreign law, whether or not we have obtained foreign law advice on your behalf.
 - 1.2 We are not qualified to provide, and will not provide, investment advice, tax advice, or advice on insurance products to you. We will, if you so request, assist you in obtaining such advice.
 - 1.3 Unless we agree to do so in writing, we will not:
 - (a) remind you about dates (e.g. PPSR, lease or consent expiry dates); or
 - (b) update advice after it is given.
 - 1.4 You agree that when we act for you, we can accept instructions from any of the following unless you expressly advise us otherwise in writing:
 - (a) if we act for a company, we can accept instructions from any director or officer of that company or any employee or other person whom you have authorised to work with us;
 - (b) if we act for a trust, we can accept instructions from any trustee or officer (if applicable) of that trust;
 - (c) if we act for a partnership we can accept any instructions from any partner or officer (if applicable) of that partnership;
 - (d) if we act for a couple in a transaction, we can accept instructions from either party;
 - (e) if you are a body corporate or incorporated society, we can accept instructions from any person holding themselves out as being authorised by the body corporate or society to instruct us.
 - 1.5 Our duty of care is to you and not to any other person. Before any other person may rely on our advice, we must expressly agree to this in writing.
 - 1.6 We may carry out reasonable credit checks. You authorise anyone we contact to provide us with information we request as part of our credit enquiries.
2. Financial
 - 2.1 We will charge a fee which is reasonable for the services provided to you. Unless we agree with you otherwise, our fees will be calculated based on the time we spend on a job at our hourly rates, and adjusted where appropriate for other factors permitted by the Law Society Rules such as:
 - (a) the time and labour expended;
 - (b) the skill, specialised knowledge and responsibility required to perform the services properly;
 - (c) the importance of the matter to you and the results achieved;
 - (d) the urgency and circumstances in which the matter is undertaken and any time limitations imposed, including those imposed by you;
 - (e) the degree of risk assumed by us in undertaking the services including the amount or value of any property involved;
 - (f) the complexity of the matter and the difficulty or novelty of the questions involved;
 - (g) the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer;
 - (h) the possibility that the acceptance of the particular retainer will preclude our engagement by other clients;
 - (i) whether the fee is fixed or conditional (whether in litigation or otherwise);
 - (j) any quote or estimate of fees given by us;
 - (k) any fee agreement (including a conditional fee agreement) entered into between you and us;
 - (l) the reasonable costs of running our practice; and
 - (m) the fee customarily charged in the market and locality for similar legal services.
 - 2.2 If requested, we will provide an estimate of the likely fees. However, this will be a guide only and not a fixed quotation, unless specifically agreed otherwise in our Letter of Engagement. Where we believe that an estimate is likely to be materially exceeded, we will endeavour to advise you and provide you with an updated estimate.
 - 2.3 We review our hourly charge-out rates on an annual basis. Following this annual review, we may amend the hourly rates that we included (if any) in our original Letter of Engagement without further communication with you.
 - 2.4 Some instructions may not be completed for reasons beyond our control. If that occurs, you will be liable to pay us for the work undertaken and costs incurred up to the time of termination.
 - 2.5 Disbursements and Expenses

In providing services we may incur disbursements or have to make payments to third parties on your behalf. You authorise us to incur these expenses. These will be included in our invoice(s) to you. We may require an advance payment for disbursements or expenses that we incur on your behalf.
 - 2.6 We will also include an administration fee in our invoice(s) to you.
